WHISKIPOLES.COM

WhiSki Poles are high-performance ski poles with an integrated flask in the cavity of the pole. Enjoy a drink post-ski, or simply skip the slopes and embrace the après ski life! WhiSki Poles are not intended to be used with alcohol while skiing or other physical activities. WhiSki Poles utilize a patented ski pole handle with a proprietary screw off cap at the top of the pole. Just unscrew the top of the pole and throw one back, no need to take off those gloves! It only takes a single hand and you won't have to worry about fumbling with the cap because there is cap-strap to make sure it's never dropped. Collapsible poles can be extended from 36" to 54" (90cm to 140cm). Each pole weighs approximately 8 ounces (250 g) when empty, or 13 ounces (360 g) when filled.

WhiSki Poles are crafted from the strongest and lightest aluminum available on the market (aircraft grade ALU 7075). Quality is important, that is why WhiSki Poles teamed up with a top-tier ski pole manufacturer who produces poles for the biggest names in the industry! The poles were engineered in the USA (patent pending) to be strong, light, comfortable and reliable. WhiSki Poles are all-mountain poles, and the premium alloy construction allows for top performance and durability.

Collapsible WhiSki Poles hold approximately 4 fluid ounces (115ml) each, or half a pint per a pair. If poles are filled with a liquid that may freeze, please leave ample room for your liquid to expand (recommend 3 inches from the top). FYI: Water freezes at 32 degrees F (0 degrees C) and 70-proof alcoholic beverages freeze at -2 degrees F (-19 degrees C), windchill does not affect freezing point.

Cleaning instructions & prior to first use: fill each pole half full of warm water & mild soap solution and shake. Air dry, cap off.

Warning: Be careful when raising WhiSki Poles into the air to not hit someone else in the body or the face. For après use only, never ski intoxicated! Follow all rules of the mountain.
